Greetings from The Glen Cove Chamber,

Good chance you've heard or seen that Glen Cove Chamber of Commerce is extremely active and effective, working consistently to elevate and promote our local businesses and organizations to heights beyond their expectations!

We are excited to invite a number of businesses like yours to participate in a variety of excellent promotional opportunities at Glen Cove Chamber's 21st annual Gala, "A Evening in Paris", to be held on Saturday, November 4th, 2023 at The Metropolitan. We know how to bring attention to your business and are proud to offer you some powerful choices for event sponsorships.

As a Gala sponsor, your business will appear in social media, press, email blasts, Gala signage, video display ads and shout-outs before, during and after the grand event. Our sponsors have been delighted with the high exposure they've received and many take advantage of our sponsorships regularly!

Our Gala will be honoring distinctive leaders in our community:

- Pinnacle Award - Kerri Scanlon, Executive Director of Northwell Hospital at Glen Cove
- Leadership Award - Retired City of Glen Cove Honorable Richard J. McCord
- Community Service Award - Gaitley Stevenson-Mathews, GSM Communications
- Small Business Award - Celeste Gullo, Celeste P. Gullo Agency, Inc.
- New Business Award - Angelina Stanco-Stone, How Can I Help Elder Care?

A portion of Gala proceeds helps fund the Dr. Glenn Howard Jr. Scholarship that is awarded annually to our local graduating students in Glen Cove; as well as supporting local businesses and community events & organizations.

If you plan to become a sponsor, simply choose your sponsorship level from the attached list. Payment for sponsorship can be made at glencovechamber.org/gala or by check made payable to Glen Cove Chamber of Commerce. Additionally, we encourage you to promote your business with a gift certificate or raffle basket. Feel free to call the Chamber office or one of the Gala co-chairs below with any questions. Act now for maximum exposure, we appreciate your support and look forward toward your success.
